

NATIONAL HEALTH EQUITY | GRAND ROUNDS

Bayard Love, MBA, MPP

Partner at Groundwater Institute

Bayard “Bay” Love is a partner at the Groundwater Institute (GWI) and is based in Portland, Maine. Bay supports major client engagements, GWI’s portfolio of learning offerings and content, and the work of the Groundwater Network. His career has been dedicated to ending structural inequity by building successful campaigns, strong organizations, and empowered leaders.

Before co-founding the Groundwater Institute, Bay served in leadership roles at long-standing civil rights and equity organizations, including the Racial Equity Institute and the People’s Institute for Survival and Beyond. He started his career in healthcare, helping to found a new Federally Qualified Health Center in Post-Katrina New Orleans, and is the son to two healthcare practitioners.

Bay was also previously a consultant with the Boston Consulting Group, where he worked in retail, healthcare, private equity, and data analytics. He has a MPP from Duke University, an MBA from University of North Carolina and a BA from Wesleyan University.
