Denisse Rojas Marquez, MD, MPP

Co-Founder, Pre-Health Dreamers and Emergency Medicine Resident, Boston Medical Center

Denisse Rojas Marquez envisions a health care system where no individual is excluded. After graduating from UC Berkeley in 2012, Denisse co-founded Pre-Health Dreamers (PHD) to provide advising, resources, and advocacy to other undocumented youth who aspire to pursue medicine like herself. Denisse's story has been featured in CNNMoney and National Public Radio's Latino USA, and Forbes magazine recognized Denisse in its "30 Under 30" most influential entrepreneurs in education. Denisse completed her MD at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai, her Masters in Public Policy at the Harvard Kennedy School, and is currently an emergency medicine resident at Boston Medical Center.
